BRAND STORY

Started in 2006, our mission is to manufacture the innovative acoustic product with the advance technology

In 2015, Divoom introduced its first pixel art speaker, as well as its advance mobile application

On 2019, there' re over millions registered users, including professional pixel artists from Japan, Germany, and France. We are not only building an innovative Bluetooth speaker, we are introducing an Eco-system with audio, daily functions, and pixel art community.

Why Pixel Art

Pixel art is the new Internet sensation

- From Minecraft to movie franchises, pixel art was never shy from the front stage.
- We built world's largest pixel art community with over millions registered users. Users are constantly interacting and sharing works with other pixel art fans
- Divoom Smart is constantly updated and improved with the suggestions from users.
- We sold over millions pixel art speakers, and we want to build a community where every pixel art fan rejoice.

Sensational

pixel art is sensation

Our speakers took over the social media platforms like a storm, and all the KOL want to get their hands on a Divoom pixel art speaker.

We composed the nostalgic element, powerful APP and great audio into a great symphony.
